Zagreb – The Capital of Croatia

Thursday to Saturday, 19 - 21 January 2012

Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, is situated in the heart of Europe. It has excellent transport links via air, road and train. It is close and yet different...

Zagreb is both old and youthful. Two in one, the present resides within the past which has been written for over 9 centuries and can be found inside museums, historical monuments and along city streets. Zagreb has exclusive hotels and congress centers, period buildings, theatres, museums, restaurants and nearby getaways. It has proven to be a great host to many international congresses, corporate meetings, cultural and sports events, and a place where true professionalism is combined with an honest and open heart.

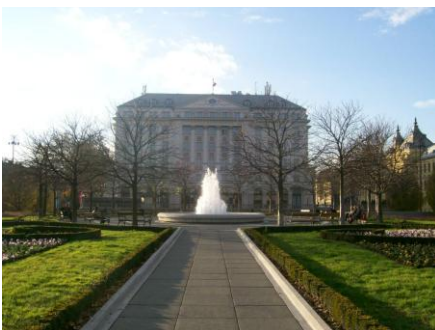

Zagreb is Europe's biggest outdoor café, always hospitable and open-hearted!

Zagreb has sports and recreational areas, parks, promenades, open air festivals and one of the best preserved garden produce markets in Europe.

Zagreb has exclusive hotels and congress centers, period buildings, theatres, museums, restaurants and nearby getaways.

Zagreb has proven to be a great host to many international congresses, corporate meetings, cultural and sporting events, and a place where true professionalism is combined with an honest and open heart.

Zagreb is the starting-point of many memorable travels and memories.
